Bad Stomach Makes Bad Blood.

You can not make sweet butter in a foul, unclean churn. The stomach serves as a churn in which to agitate, work up and disintegrate our food as it is being digested. If it be weak, sluggish and foul the result will be torpid, sluggish liver and bad, impure blood.

The ingredients of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery are just such as best serve to correct and cure all such derangements. It is made up without a drop of alcohol in its composition; chemically pure, triple-refined glycerine being used instead of the commonly employed alcohol. Now this glycerine is of itself a valuable medicine, instead of a deleterious agent like alcohol, especially in the cure of weak stomach, dyspepsia and the various forms of indigestion. Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennett Medical College, Chicago, says of it:

"In dyspepsia it serves an excellent purpose. * * * It is one of the best manufactured products of the present time in its action upon enfeebled, disordered stomachs; especially if there is ulceration or catarrhal gastritis (catarrhal inflammation of stomach). It is a most efficient preparation. Glycerine will relieve many cases of pyrosis (heartburn) and excessive gastric acidity. It is useful in chronic intestinal dyspepsia, especially the flatulent variety, and in certain forms of chronic constipation, stimulating the secretory and excretory functions of the intestinal glands."

When combined, in just the right proportions, with Golden Seal root, Stone root, Black Cherrybark, Queen's root, Blood-root and Mandrake root, or the extracts of these, as in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, there can be no doubt of its great efficacy in the cure of all stomach, liver and intestinal disorders and derangements. These several ingredients have the strongest endorsement in all such cases of such eminent medical leaders as Prof. R. Bartholow, M. D., of Jefferson Medical College, Chicago; Prof. Hobart A. Hare, M. D., of Medical Department, University of Pa.; Prof. Laurence Johnson, M. D., Medical Department, University of New York; Prof. Edwin M. Hale, M. D., Hahnemann Medical College, Chicago; Prof. John M. Scudder, M. D. and Prof. John King, M. D., Authors of the American Dispensatory, and scores of others among the leading medical men of our land.

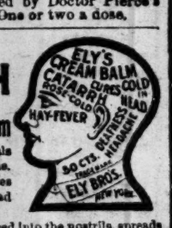
Who can doubt the curative virtues of a medicine the ingredients of which have such a professional endorsement?

Constipation cured by Doctor Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. One or two a dose.

Nasal CATARRH

In all its stages.

Ely's Cream Balm



cleanses, soothes and heals the diseased membrane. It cures catarrh and drives away a cold in the head quickly.

Cream Balm is placed into the nostrils, spreads over the membrane and is absorbed. Relief is immediate and a cure follows. It is not drying—does not produce sneezing. Large Size, 50 cents at Druggists or by mail; Trial Size, 10 cents.

HAIR TELLS CHARACTER.

Color of Hair Said to Indicate a Person's Temperament.

Many people believe that blonde, or light hair denotes affection and dark hair constancy. A person without hair is not devoid of character; far from it. The disposition of the average bald-headed man is to show such solicitude for the welfare of others, that he neglects himself. A germ causes baldness. Prof. Sabouraud, of Paris, France, inoculated a rabbit with Dandruff germs, causing it to become totally bald in five weeks' time. To rid the scalp of these dangerous germs it is necessary to apply Newbro's Herpicide.

"Destroy the cause—you remove the effect."

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Two sizes—50 cents and $1.00.

Catarrh

To prove unquestionably, and beyond any doubt, that Catarrh of the nose and throat can be cured, I am furnishing patients through druggists, small free Trial Boxes of Dr. Shoop's Catarrh Cure. I do this because I am so certain, that Dr. Shoop's Catarrh Cure will bring actual substantial help. Nothing certainly, is so convincing as a physical test of any real, genuine merit. But that article must possess true merit, else the test will condemn, rather than advance it. Dr. Shoop's Catarrh Cure is a snow white, healing antiseptic balm, put up in beautiful nickel capped glass jars at 50c. Such soothing agents as Oil Eucalyptus, Thymol, Menthol, etc., are incorporated into a velvety, cream like Petrolatum, imported by Dr. Shoop from Europe. If Catarrh of the nose and throat has extended to the stomach, then by all means also use internally, Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Stomach distress, a lack of general strength, bloating, belching, biliousness, bad taste, etc. surely call for Dr. Shoop's Restorative.

For uncomplicated catarrh only of the nose and throat nothing else, however, need be used but

Dr. Shoop's Catarrh Cure

A Cincinnati Mystery.

An incident having in it many elements of strange mystery was told yesterday by Dr. Earl P. Achley, a surgeon, who has an office with Dr Thomas Longworth, a cousin to Congressman Nicholas Longworth, in Cincinnati. Blindfolded, the surgeon was taken Saturday night to dress the wounds of a man who was suffering from a terrible gash across his throat and extending from the right ear almost to the left. Who the wounded man was or how he received the wounds, which the surgeon believes will result fatally, could not be learned, because of the measures taken to keep his identity a secret.

In telling of the affair last night Dr. Achley said that he was called out of bed shortly before midnight by two men of middle age, both of them dressed in automobile attire. They asked if he would be willing to take an important case on certain conditions, and offered a large fee. When the surgeon asked that they name the conditions, his callers said it would be necessary for him to be blindfolded before he was taken to their touring car at the curb in the street, and that he would be returned to his home in this same manner.

Dr. Achley complied with their demands and a bandage was placed over his eyes. He was escorted to the automobile and after riding twenty minutes, as near as he could tell, was led into a house and up two flights of stairs. The bandage was removed and he found himself in a room richly furnished. On the bed lay the desperately wounded man. The edge of the knife had barely missed the jugular and windpipe.

A beautiful woman, who was in the room when the doctor entered, brought him a bowl of warm water and then withdrew. He dressed the wound, and when through was blindfolded and returned to his home.

There was nothing said to give him the slightest clew to the identity of his patient or those about him. He has not the least idea as to the location of the house.

Argo Red Salmon took the grand prize at the St. Louis Exposition, the only one ever given at any fair on Salmon. 15c a can.

Woman Murdered.

As the result of a jealous quarre', Hattie Williamson was shot to death by her lover, Frank Allison, at a house on Pearl street, Norfolk, yesterday morning. Allison, who had been employed at the Seaboard Air Line shops, made his escape immediately after the shooting and is believed to be en route to Raleigh, N. C., where he formerly worked. He was trailed by bloodhounds immediately after the alarm was given, but at the crossing of the Belt Line Railway and the Seaboard Air Line gave up the chase.

The police believe he took one of two extra freight trains that passed that point after 11 o'clock, at which hour he was seen in the vicinity. Both trains were southbound, and it is thought the man will seek refuge across the North Carolina state line. The man and woman had been keeping company for a long while. The victim was a young woman. She was shot in the breast, and lived only twenty minutes after the fatal shot was fired.

Out of Sight.

"Out of sight, out of mind," is an old saying which applies with special force to a sore, burn or wound that's been treated with Bucklin's Arnica Salve. It's out of sight, out of mind and out of existence. Piles too and chilblains disappear under its healing influence. Guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, Druggists. 25c.

Policeman Killed.

One policeman was killed and another seriously wounded as the result of an Italian row in Washington Square Park, New York, late yesterday afternoon. An Italian, the apparently innocent cause of the trouble, was also badly wounded.

The row started when Charles Vincenico, nineteen years old, entered a public comfort station and jostled against John Govornale, who was standing near the entrance of the place with his brother, Salvatore.

When Vincenico came out, Salvatore drew a revolver and opened fire on him and his friends. One shot struck Vincenico in the groin. The shooter then ran, followed by several policemen. He ran into a hall. Two policemen followed, and he fired point blank at both. One of them died shortly after.

The other was seriously wounded. Salvatore was overpowered and arrested.

The News—No Pure Drug Cough Cure Laws would be needed, if all Cough Cures were like Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure is—and has been for 20 years. The National Law now requires that if any poison enter into a cough mixture, it must be printed on the label or package.

For this reason mothers, and others, should insist on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. No poison marks on Dr. Shoop's labels—and none in the medicine, else it must by law be on the label. And it's not only safe, but it is said to be by those that know it best, a truly remarkable cough remedy. Take no chance, particularly with your children. Insist on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. Compare carefully the Dr. Shoop package with others and see. No poison marks there! You can always be on the safe side by demanding Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. Simply refuse to accept any other. Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists.

Complies with all requirements of the National Pure Food Law, Guarantee No. 2041, filed at Washington.

SOLD IN SEALED PACKAGES ONLY—FOR YOUR PROTECTION

An old soldier writes about ARIOSA Coffee: "Your coffee is the best and richest coffee I ever drank since I left the service, from '61 until I received your coffee yesterday." A soldier knows coffee by the taste, and the way it makes him feel, and would sooner go without his bread than without his coffee. Arbuckles' ARIOSA was the first roasted, packaged coffee, packaged for protection of consumers, roasted and the pores of each berry sealed with a coating of fresh eggs and pure sugar, to hold the goodness in and make the coffee settle clear and quickly. Better than "fresh roast." Warming a little develops the flavor and makes the grinding easy. Our enormous coffee business, exceeding the next four largest firms in the world together, reduces our average cost per pound, and enables us to give you better coffee for your money than you can buy in any other way. There are more packages of ARIOSA sold in the United States than all the other Coffee packages combined.

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER.

MONDAY EVENING, APRIL 15, 1907.

WHEN ON FRIDAY the Gazette received from Richmond and published the dispatch stating that Judge Beverley T. Crump, chairman of the State Corporation Commission, had tendered his resignation to the Governor, we, in common with many people throughout the State, regretted to learn that he had taken this step, believing him to be an able, efficient and irreproachable officer—such a man that had only the interest of the State at heart. But since reading the following from Richmond we exceedingly regret that Judge Crump had not resigned some time since:

It is understood that the real reason for the resignation of Judge Crump was his connection as counsel, or otherwise, with the American Guild, which absorbed the Modern Puritans, and which was recently investigated by the insurance bureau under the State Corporation Commission. It is stated that Judge Crump resigned after the investigation was asked for. It is said that the other members of the Corporation Commission did not know of Judge Crump's connection with the American Guild until the report from the insurance bureau reached them.

The investigation of the company was not begun by the bureau under the commission of Virginia, but of Maryland. Judge Crump is said to have received a salary of $1,500 or more from this concern during the time that, as a member of the commission, he was passing on the issuance of insurance charters and other matters. Judge Crump was opposed, it is said, to the formation of a bureau of insurance in Virginia, and did, it is claimed, what he could to frustrate the appointment of Colonel Joseph Button, then clerk of the Senate, as insurance commissioner.

It will be remembered that over a year ago Judge Crump brought reproach upon himself by becoming a stockholder in a corporation upon whose acts he had to pass and that a legislative committee recommended that he tender his resignation from the commission, but his friends in and out of the legislature believing that his act was only one of indiscretion prevented the passage of the committee's resolution. That should have been a sufficient warning to Judge Crump, but his latest act shows him at least to be a man without judgment or discretion and that his desire to get money honestly if he can but to get money, makes him entirely unfit to occupy a position on the corporation or any other commission. The greed of gain seems to be pervading every branch of every government and makes men do things which brings the blush of shame to the faces of their friends if not to their own, when the inevitable exposure is made.

PRESIDENT LINCOLN was assassinated by John Wilkes Booth in Ford's Theatre, Washington, forty-two years ago last night. The assassination caused exasperation in the northern section of the country and general regret south of Mason and Dixon's line. The atmosphere was gradually becoming clear of the smoke of the civil war and the dove of of peace was about to return to the land, when Booth, a misguided enthusiast, a victim of dementia Americana, paranoia or some other distemper, entered the theatre and killed the President. All rejoicing by the federal soldiers, who then occupied this city, and their sympathizers over the termination of the war was brought to a sudden standstill and funeral dirges took the place of the paeans of the victors. The southern people, while deeply regretting the assassination, were terror-stricken, fearing that the sin of the assassin would be visited upon them. The federal guards were doubled and squads of soldiers proceeded from house to house demanding that the citizens should drape their homes in mourning. Those were fearful days and are still remembered by the older residents of the city. This country has made much history since that notable tragedy and two more pages descriptive of the assassination of Presidents have been added during the past two-score years.

MR. W. R. HEARST celebrated the anniversary of Thomas Jefferson's birthday by calling for the organization of a third national party, to go before the country as the advocate of "honest measures, honest methods, and honest men." In Mr. Hearst's opinion, the Independence League will fill the bill. His announcement of the broadening of the league foom a State to a national organization, which was made at a dinner given Saturday night in his honor at the Hotel Savoy, in New York, by the league's county committee, amounted practically to the serving notice by Mr. Hearst that he would be in the running for the presidential nomination in 1908. Mr. Hearst is becoming pestiferous now and the sooner he is squelched the better it will be. The democratic party is no place for him and that party should let him severely alone.

A special dispatch from Rome announces the death there this morning of Mrs. Hungerford, mother of Mrs. John W. Mcakay, and of Countess Telfener.

From Washington.

Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, April 15.

The Supreme Court of the United States established a record today by the justices not being able to agree unanimously upon a single case decided. Justice Holmes capped the climax by saying in the case where the validity of the marriage of James Travers, formerly a wealthy man of Washington, to Sophia Gracon, in which was involved, that he felt compelled to dissent although he was glad that the other justices had seen fit to decide the other way. "Because you live in New Jersey and think you are married does not make you married," said Justice Holmes in dissenting. The other justices thought it did and the children by this union become the heirs to a valuable estate.

The general staff of the U. S. army has prepared a plan for a standing army for Cuba to consist of 12 000 men all of whom, including the officers are to be natives. This plan is to be submitted to Provisional Governor Magoon and it will take the place of the plan heretofore proposed of making an increase in the strength of the Rural Guards.

With only two weeks remaining in which to hear arguments at this term, the U. S. Supreme Court has a list of important cases, advanced from far down on the docket to be heard in the next few days. This will be taken up almost entirely with arguments in the federal inheritance tax cases, the livestock dressed product transportation problem of the west, and the cases of the express companies in relation to the prohibition laws of the States.

Former Senator Patterson, of Colorado, found guilty by the Supreme Court of Colorado of contempt of that court by printing in his papers, the Denver Times and the Rocky Mountain News, improper articles growing out of the "Colorado election cases," must pay his fine of $1,000. The Supreme Court of the United States today dismissed the appeal from the judges of the Supreme Court of Colorado in which Patterson was fined this amount.

The long continued fight over the assessment of the New York inheritance tax on the estate of Mrs. Laura Astor Delano, daughter of Wm. B. Astor, of New York, was settled by the U. S. Supreme Court today when it held that the inheritance or succession tax on the property was proper and just. Wm. B. Aster, as a wedding gift to his daughter, deeded to trustees certain valuable property on her wedding day in 1849, the proceeds going to the daughter. Standard Oil Found Guilty.

The Standard Oil Company was found guilty of rebating at 10 o'clock Saturday night by a jury in Federal Judge Landis' court in Chicago.

The jury declared the company was not guilty on 442 counts of the indictment, but that it was liable on 1,462 counts.

The maximum fine is $20,000 on each count and the minimum is $1,000. Therefore, the maximum gross fines may aggregate $29,240,000.

The company was indicted by the federal grand jury of the Northern district of Illinois for accepting concessions in storage charges, reduction in rates and receiving other advantages of railroad discrimination which were equivalent to concessions in rates. The indictment contained 1,904 counts. The amounts alleged to have been given the company aggregate $273,000 within 18 months. The shipments were from Whiting, Ind., to East St. Louis, Ill., and from Chappell, Ill., to St. Louis, Missouri.

The investigation of the grand jury also disclosed, according to averments, that oil was shipped at reduced rates for the Standard from Whiting to southern points.

Judge Landis agreed to permit the jury to find a verdict during the week, so that its vigil of six weeks might end. He will rule as to the number of offenses this week. If he limits the offenses to but one crime there can be no greater fine than $20,000, and it is possible the defendant might escape with a fine of $1,000. On the other hand, he has power to rule that each shipmeut constituted an offense, and the company may be fined the entire amount of the aggregate of maximum fines—nearly $30,000.

The ruling will be most important in the federal jurisdiction. It will determine whether or not the federal laws against railroad discriminations are enforceable.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

D. A. R.

Washington, D. C., April 15.—Representatives of 65,000 Daughters of the American Revolution met today in Memorial Continental Hall in the sixteenth annual congress of that society. "Sweet Sixteen" is the way Mrs. Donald McLean, president-general of the society, is pleased to refer to the daughters, and it charms them all immensely. In all there were about 700 daughters in attendance at the opening meeting. The opening meeting was an ovation for Mrs. McLean. As she entered the hall, already well filled with the awaiting members, she was welcomed with loud applause and the waving of hundreds of handkerchiefs. Her re-election now seems assured, possibly by a unanimous vote. The election of ten vice president generals, a secretary and treasurer-general has already developed into a McLean and anti-McLean fight. The principal campaign talk is concerning the finances of the society. For three or four years the society has been constructing Continental Hall The by-laws will not permit the incurring of a debt, so the building is constructed dollar by dollar. The congresses are held there each year and just about convention time the masons start to work on the front of the building. It appears that the administration invested some Continental Hall funds, not immediately necessary for expenses, in railroad bonds, which have since declined in value. Officers of the administration deny there was any investment in stocks. The whole matter will probably be threshed out on the floor of the congress

The feature of the morning session was the annual address of the President-general. This was followod by brief responses by several delegates. Mrs. McLean wore a modish gown of violet and white striped silk, with violet sleeves and wide girdle of the same color. The gown was lighted by a pale green color and elbow garters. Mrs. McLean wore a small violet straw mushroom toque trimmed with violet plumes and long dark purple streamers. She carried a huge cluster of violets.

The Pope's Allocution

Rome, April 15.—In his allocution delivered to the consistory today Pope Pius referred in scathing terms to the actions of France in the fight against the Holy See over the French separation law. The pontiff said: "I solemnly protest against the methods which the French republic has not scrupled to resort to, measures absolutely repugnant to the noble and chivalrous spirit traditional to the nation. The French government after arbitrarily breaking the concordat and violently despoiling the church, has failed to recognize the ancient and true glory of France and has endeavored to uproot all remains of religion, committing every excess, violating with the gravest offense every public and private law, calumniating the episopacy and clergy and trying to separate them from the Holy See. The French government has also purposely involved national institutions in its anti-religious war in order to be able to accuse the Pope of fighting French popular institutions, which in reality he has always accepted and respected. I rejoice at the splendid concord between the clergy and the Holy See, and hope better days are in store for France. The Church does not intend to stop her sacred duty of working for God's beloved people. To hatred it will oppose love, to error truth; to slander and malediction, forgiveness. I pray God that persecution of religion may cease. The Church, again acquiring liberty, should be able to count even on non-Catholics, if they be lovers of civilization and uprightness, in cooperating with us to the common good and prosperity of the country.

New York, April 15.—The welcome of America to the advocates of international peace will be extended late this afternoon by Elihu Root for the nation; Governor Hughes, for the State; and Mayor McClellan for the city when the thousands of delegates to the national arbitration congress and to the peace congress gather in Carnegie Hall. Following the address of welcome to the delegates by Mayor McClellan, a letter from President Roosevelt was read to the congress in which he regretted his inability to be present, and expressed the hope that the Congress would succeed in all its undertakings He reviewed the work and aims of the United States, and in reference to disarmament said: "Anything in the nature of general disarmament would do harm and not good if it left the civilized and peace-loving peoples, those with the highest standard of municipal and international obligation and duty, unable to check the other peoples who have no such standards, who acknowledge no such obligations."

The Congress will be closed Wednesday night with two great banquets for which more than a thousand persons engaged places today. President Roosevelt and famous men from all parts of the world will reply to toasts.

Standard Oil to Contest.

Chicago, April 15.—Despite overwhelming proof of its violation of the Elkins law, as shown by the verdict of guilty returned against it in the United States District Court Saturday night, the Standard Oi[l] up. Within a[ ] will be asked t[o] can hear argum[ent] new trial, notice[ ] the court Imm[ediately] had returned i[ts] ruled the defe[nse] in arrest of judg[ment] the defense wil[l] six cent rate [case] pany commit[ted] of the Elkins [law] tion of the go[vern]ment oil shipped constituted [a] fense is not good. To this the government will reply that as only one offense can be punished by no more than $20,000, and that the amount derived by the Standard Oil Company in the counts charged in the indictment was $238,000, the fine is by no means commensurate with the crime. Should Judge Landis sustain this motion in arrest of judgment the defendant company undoubtedly would pay the fine and prepare for a similar line of battle in the seven remaining indictments. If the motion is denied the case will be appealed either to the Court of Appeals or the United States Supreme Court.

Storm and Earthquake Shock.

Mexico City, April 15.—Confusion still reigns in the poorer quarters of the city as the result of the earthquake shock lasting intermittently for four and a half minutes which wrought considerably havoc here last night. While many persons were injured by falling tiles and toppling walls, there was no loss of life, so far as can be learned. No buildings of importance were wrecked, though cracked walls are to be found in all quarters of the city. The electric lighting plant was badly damaged and several broken mains are reported. An electrical storm which preceded the earthquake shock was of tremendous force and created a wave of terror among the ignorant classes, which was culminated by the seismic disturbance. All of the lights in the city went out and for several hours the greatest confusion prevailed. All wire communication has been temporarily interrupted.

Not a Coachman.

Baltimore, April 15.—Charles H. Kuffman, of Boston, who is to marry Mrs. Laura Brown, widow of Alexander D. Brown, the banker, denies the story that he was formerly a coachman. Kuffman, who is attractive in appearance, says he has known Mrs. Brown for several years and that he met her at Narragansett. Mrs. Brown, when asked what was Mr. Kuffman's business or occupation, replied that was nobody's business, that he was a Boston gentleman and that so long as she was satisfied with her choice it did not concern the public. The disparity in their ages, the widow being 66 and Kuffman 32 years her junior, is made light of by both. Mrs. Brown insists that it does not affect their love for each other, The marriage will take place in a few weeks.

Gove and Sergeant Sewalt Phinney, employes of the postoffice, now on strike duty with company B, Fifth Ohio National Guards, guarding the plant of the American Shipbuilding Company, to return to work at once or forfeit their positions. Captain Gove and Sergeant Phinney have refused to comply and have appealed to the Postoffice Department at Washington. Senator Foraker has promised to take up the case of the guardsmen at once. Senator Dick, as the head of the State and national military organizations, has also been appealed to and is expected to aid the guard officials.

Another Mary Rogers Case.

Houlton, Me., April 15.—The trial of Anne Dickinson, for the murder of her husband, which began here today, presents almost an exact duplicate to the Mary Rogers case which stirred up the Vermont and the anti-capital punishment advocates of the whole nation, to save the woman's life. Jointly charged with Mrs. Dickenson is Juan Roberts, alias Jack Roberts, a Mexican, who had been working for her husband as guide and woodsman. Edgar Dickenson was shot down at his home in Smyrna Mills, on October 18 1906. According to the Maine laws life imprisonment is the severest penalty Mrs. Dickinson can pay.

"The Little Trianon" to be Sold.

Paris, April 15.—The Little Trianon, the handsome residence of Madame Anna Gould, formerly the Countess de Castellane, is to be sold and turned into a large cafe and hall for fashionable entertainments, according to the latest Boulevard gossip. Madame Gould, the report states, is in such straitened circumstances that the sale of the palace in the Avenue Boise de Boulogne has become necessary. Madame Gould, it is known, has paid many of her husband's debts, and after settling with her lawyers, who obtained her divorce, is understood to need money badly, while her Paris mansion is really of little use to her now

The Thaw Case.

New York, April 15.—Until the question of who will be Harry Thaw's legal advisers in the future is definitely settled and plans tentatively outlined for the conduct of his case, it is not likely ap[plication] for his release on bail will be [made]. There has been [no] change in the case this [morning] Hartridge Pea[body] tained. The silence maintained by the other attorneys leaves the public in doubt as to just where they stand.

One reason suggested today for the delay in applying for bail for Thaw is that it will be a more difficult matter for him to furnish the large bond which is sure to be asked for him. Mrs. William Thaw's fortune, it is stated, has been seriously impaired by the heavy expenses of the trial and she cannot furnish individually the large sum sure to be demanded, if bail is fixed, without selling some property. Thaw's other relatives could supply money, but it is intimated they do not care to "take chances" on Harry.

Thaw today had recovered in great measure from his disappointment of Friday, when the jury was discharged without reaching a verdict in his case. He is still basing great hopes on being granted his freedom, when his attorneys finally make the application for his release on bail.

It is reported this afternoon that United States Senator Philander C. Knox, who was formerly a Pittsburg lawyer, will defend Thaw in his next trial. It is said the prisoner's mother has decided to retain Senator Knox.

William Jennings Bryan was the guest of honor at the university. He visited Monticello during the afternoon, accompanied by judge R. T. W. Duke and Dr. Kent.

At night Mr Bryan spoke to as many people as could be comfortably seated in Cabell Hall. His theme was "Thomas Jefferson," which he discussed for nearly two hours, contrasting his principles with those of Hamilton. Jefferson he said, was a rich man in his day and yet his views upon no public question were ever colored by the money in his pocket. It never disturbed his sympathy with the common people Jefferson he regarded as the best educated man of his time, and he sought to have the benefits of education universally conferred. Mr. Bryan devoted the concluding part of his address to an appeal to the students to attach themselves to some great principle, and to defend it with sincerity, enthusiasm, and a forgetfulness of self which would insure a valuable service to the country.

Mr. Bryan was warmly cheered by the students at the conclusion of his address. He left at midnight for Washington, after a banquet tendered by the Delta Chi fraternity.

"This is the first time I have been brought in contact officially with the citizens of your county, and I trust that during the next few months, while I will be temporarily your judge, that our relations will be mutually pleasant and beneficial. I desire to say that while I am holding this position that the law must be and shall be upheld and obeyed and those violating its provisions will be punished. * * * Upon your body in a large measure depends the good order, happiness and peace of your community. * * * I am required to give you especially in charge the law with reference to the sale of ardent spirits, wines, malt liquors, or any mixtures thereof, and to send before your body the constables and commissioner of revenue, with a view of ascertaining whether any person in this county is or has been engaged in the sale of liquor without a license. In this connection complaint has been made of violations in various sections of your county of the revenue laws, the laws prohibiting gambling, and the sale of cocaine and opium. My attention has been called to an article which appeared several weeks ago in your county paper, a copy of which I will hand you, charging the open and flagrant violations of the law. The court has no means of ascertaining whether the statements contained in the article are true or false except through you. I therefore have had the editor of the paper summoned before your body, and now expressly charge you to make a careful, full and complete investigation of the alleged violations set forth in the article and any others that may come to your knowledge, sparing neither time nor labor in your investigations. If upon its completion you find that there have been any violations of any of the laws, it is your duty to present the violators thereof to the court so that upon conviction proper punishment ...

...set—none to be tried before Wednesday, however.

The grand jury returned into court but presented no indictments and were discharged.

The grand jury recommended that the sheriff see that certain places of business were kept closed from 12 o'clock Saturday night until sunrise Monday morning, and reported that they had investigated an article published in the county paper concerning gambling and the sale of liquor and had been unable to secure any evidence upon which to bring in a presentment.

Joseph Thomas, alias John Wright, colored, who was sentenced to be hanged December 14 last for assault upon Miss Mabel Risley, will be resentenced by Judge Barley at the close of this term of court.

The attendance at court was small. Among those present were Judge Nicol and Mr. C. C. Carlin, candidates for Congress, who were on hand looking after their political interests.

Confirmation Services.

Bishop Robert A. Gibson, of the Episcopal Church Diocese, confirmed a class of four persons at Christ Church, yesterday, in the presence of a large congregation. Bishop Gibson was assisted in the services by the rector, Rev. William J. Morton. Before the "laying on of hands," Bishop Gibson delivered an interesting and instructive sermon to which the congregation gave close attention. An appropriate address to the confirmation class was also made by the bishop.

In the evening the Bishop preached and confirmed a class of two at Meade Chapel, colored. Assisting the Bishop was Rev. Jas. F. Mitchell, the rector.

At Grace Church at night the Bishop also preached and confirmed a class of ten. He was assisted in the services by Rev. Edgar Carpenter, rector of the church.

Houseboat Not Molested.

There was an impression in the city yesterday that the police of this city or the authorities of Prince Georges county, Md., would make a descent on the houseboat anchored off Jones's Point on which gambling is said to be conducted. Numbers of persons, notwithstanding the wintry blasts which swept the river during the day, took positions on the river front in expectation of witnessing the expected raid. About an average number of Washingtonians came to this city on the ferry steamer and left here on the little steamer Bartholdi for the houseboat. The Bartholdi connected with the ferryboat on every trip.

Mrs. Dr. Jos. A. Pargon, of New York, is on a visit to her friend, Mrs. J. E. Chesser, of upper Duke street. Mrs. Pargon was formerly Miss Irma Holzl, of Washington.

The Cold Wave.

A cold and high northwest wind prevailed all day yesterday and last night, and at times there were "spits" of snow. Thin ice formed during the night, and at 7 o'clock this morning the mercury in the thermometer was but a few degrees above the freezing point. The wind diminished in force during today, but the temperature has remained uncomfortably low. The city was quiet yesterday, and comparatively few people were moving about the streets by reason of the cold weather.

Street Improvements.

More than half a square of granolithic sidewalk has been constructed on the west side of Fairfax street, between King and Cameron. The street was recently paved with vitrified brick. In the near future Cameron street between Royal and Fairfax, will have been paved with vitrified brick, and when this is done a modern and durable roadway will surround the City Hall.

Inspection.

Major James E. King and Surgeon A. A. Rutenour, of Alexandria, inspected Company L, Seventieth Virginia Regiment, Washington Guards, of Fredericksburg, at their armory Friday night. The officers found the company in excellent condition, praised the men, and congratulated the officers on having one of the best companies in the State.

The Fishing Season.

The recent cold wave with high northwest winds and low tides has practically brought operations on the fishing shores to a standstill, and prices for shad and herring remain high. The former were selling today at from $40 to $50 per hundred, while herring had advanced to $10 per thousand. There is but little doing at Fishtown.

Presbytery of the Chesapeake.

Church Property Destroyed by Fire.

Hackensack, N. J., April 15.—The second Reformed church of this town, together with its chapel and a row of five near-by barns, on Main and State streets, was burned to the ground this morning. The fire started in the barn of Aaron Ackerman, and is thought to have been of incendiary origin. The loss will probably amount to $100,000. The chapel was presented to the church some years ago by Senator William F. Johnson in memory of his son. It was only yesterday that the congregation celebrated the liquidation of the entire debt.

President Roosevelt has addressed "To the School Children of the United States" a message on the significance of Arbor Day which, during the month of April, is celebrated in many of the States. He says they should celebrate the day thoughtfully, and when they help to preserve the forests or to plant new ones, they are acting the part of good citizens.

His Dear Old Mother.

"My dear old mother, who is now eighty-three years old, thrives on Electric Bitters," writes W. B. Brunson, of Dublin, Ga. "She has taken them for about two years and enjoys an excellent appetite, feels strong and sleeps well." That's the way Electric Bitters affect the aged, and the same happy results follow in all cases of female weakness and general debility. Weak, puny children too, are greatly strengthened by them. Killed by Her Husband.

In an insane frenzy believed to have been inspired by jealousy, James Sundi yesterday killed his wife and fired several bullets through the ceiling of their apartment in Providence, R. I., in the desire to kill women occupants of the rooms above. He was captured when he had emptied his revolver. An endeavor to save her infant child from her husband's wrath caused Mrs. Sundi's death. She saw her husband waving the revolver, coming toward her. She rushed to the child's crib, and, clasping the infant to her breast, rushed from the apartment. Sundi's bullet stopped her flight at the threshold, killing the woman instantly.

"I'm going to kill every woman in the house. They are all deceivers," shouted Sundi, as he stood over his wife's body flourishing the smoking weapon. Instead of rushing upstairs to fulfill his murderous threat, the madman contended himself with emptying his revolver into the ceiling. No one was hurt. Neighbors rushed in and disarmed the frenzied man. He fought all the way to the police station.

The dead woman was only 19 years of age and had been married to Sundi three and a half years. He is 21 years old.

Sundi said after his arrest that he intended to shoot his father-in-law, Judas A. Marcos. Sundi was held in $5,000 bail on a manslaughter charge.

Killed at the Telephone.

Miss Anna Greenwood, aged twenty-nine, was killed by electricity while using the telephone at her home in Marlboro, Mass., Saturday night. An examination showed a slight burn on the wrist, indicating that a cuff button had touched the switch as she turned on the light, the current passing through her body into the telephone instrument, which she was touching with her other hand. After dinner Saturday she left the table laughing at a remark made by her father and stepped from the dining room to telephone a friend. There is an electric light directly over the telephone, and she reached to turn it on as she started to ring for central. Instantly all the lights in the house were extinguished, and Mr. Greenwood heard his daughter fall. He hurried to her, but she was dead.

The Alaska Packers Association furnish the government hundreds of thousands of cases of Salmon a year. Out of 240,000 cans examined by the government at Camp Thomas only four defective cans were found. This firm packs the Argo Red Salmon.

on an inoffensive citizen is frequently made in that apparently useless little tube called the "appendix." It's generally the result of protracted constipation, following liver torpor. Row on a Train.

A dispatch from Charleston, S. C., says that former populist candidate for President, Thomas Watson, of Georgia, figured in a row that delayed a Southern Railway train twenty minutes Saturday. Just how the trouble started is not known, but passengers were attracted by a heated discussion between Watson and the porter and conductor of the Pullman car. The Georgian was complaining that he was not receiving the courtesy due passengers, and with a sudden swing of his right hand, which held a grip, he smashed that adjunct of a railway trip full in the face of the dusky handler of shoes and clothes brushes. The porter staggered, the conductor disappeared within the car, and friends of Watson prevailed on him to desist and allow the train to proceed.

Does Coffee disagree with you? Probably it does! Then try Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee. "Health Coffee" is a clever combination of parched cereals and nuts. Not a grain of real Coffee, remember, in Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee, yet its flavor and taste matches closely old Java and Mocha Coffee. If your stomach, heart, or kidneys can't stand Coffee drinking, try Health Coffee. It is wholesome, nourishing, and satisfying. It's nice even for the youngest child. Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists.

Many sufferers from nasal catarrh say they get splendid results by using an atomizer. For their benefit we prepare Ely's Liquid Cream Balm. The soothing spray relieves at once and cure is certain. All druggists, 75c, including spraying tube, or mailed by Ely Bros., 56 Warren Street, New York.
